Of report of the varied operations as witnessed | course the disappointment was cruel and by him at the headquarters of the Commission at Louisville, from which we make the following extracts:

"Very well," said Mr. Holbrook, "if we can't aid well," said Mr. Holbrook, "if we can't aid you with news it will at least help to confirm the correctness of our books." So the books were examined and the following changes found to have occurred since they had heard: The first man's son had died; had heard: The first man's son had died; the sons of the second and third had been and he who had been so poor received the ernest of an inheritance which will not fade when the diadems of earth shall have moldremoved to Louisville, and were then in the city, close at hand; the son of the fourth had gone to a hospital at Cincinnati; that of a fifth to Quincy, Ill., and only the sixth man appointment, she found at Nashville that he had been removed, as just stated. She hurried back to Louisville and was ago-nized to learn that he had died there the next day after she had passed through to Nashviile.

A mother had a sick son at Nashville, and set-out to see him. At Louisville she applied for a military pass to proceed, but was refused, because of the great number of persons similarly applying, and the unwillingness of the army authorities to allow females to enter the lines. So she came to the Sanitary Rooms and stated her case, and her son's name was found in the books. Said she, "I have seven sons in the army and I do not wish one of them out; but I' do want the privilege of seeing them whon they are sick." Said Mr. Holbrook, "It is no part of our work to obtain military passes, but I will see what can be done, as on exception in your case," and he wrote a statement of it to Gen. Boyle, who instanty granted the pass.

The character and principles of the visi-

ors are sometimes curiously brought out. There came in, one day, a man in "butter-nu" clothes, from Indiana, to inquire after a son who had been mortally wounded. He said that as he was opposite one of the elegant residences of Louisville, a gentleman came out, accosted him, and asked him why he seemed so troubled. He told him that his son was mortally wounded, and he was on his way to see him. "Served you right!" replied the brute. "It is what all you nigger-stealing Yankees who send your sons to the war in the same business will get before the war is over. You don't know what you are fighting for." "Ob, how angry I was," said our butternut friend, "when he called me a nigger-stealing Yankee----me, who was born in Virginia, was raised in Kentucky, went to Indiana forty years ago, -before it was a State, am related to all the Lees and Jacksons, voted for Breckinridge at the last Presidential election and have helped to return fugitive slaves! I know what we are fighting for.—for our Government and Union. I fought in the war of 1812; have raised ten children; three of them are in the Union army, and the others would be if they were big ono and I would go myself if I wasn't so old. I told him that before this Government should go down, a million of men would march Sonth and wipe ont the Confederacy." God grant that all the "butternuts" in Indiana and the neighboring States may be converted to the same faith. I will mention another case of noble patriotism manifested in a somewhat similar way, under the sorrows of the war. man had lost two sons in the battle of Shiloh and now he heard that the third and last was sick at Jonesville. He came to the, Hospital Directory to learn where he was, and was told that he was in the hospital for erysipelas patients, and he must be prepared to find him very low. He went there and found them just burying his boy. He came back shortly after, with tears streaming down his cheeks, and said: "Had I three sons more, and knew that they would ail go just as they have, I would give them Has the world ever witnessed subimer devotion to country and freedom?

But sometimes the intelligence given at the office is fraught with bitterness, and that when little expected; yet even then the sympathy expressed and the help afforded are invaluable to the afflicted. an old man came from Northern Ohio to see his son, who had been ill in one of the hospitals at Louisville. He came to the coms of the Sanitary Commission to ascertain in which hospital he could find his To-day the Chronicle says that years ago boy. He was sprightly and cheerful—full of eagerness to see his boy, and opened his White House at the President's levees, seek-ling an introduction to the Chief Magistrate of bought for him, and the various presents the nation, he would, in all probability, have that had been sent by the brothers and sisters and mother at home. "Now," says he, "tell me where to go." So Mr. Hotoroom looked in the register, found the name, gianced quickly at the memorandum opposite and raising his eyes to that father's expectant face, said in a subdued tone, "My dear sir, your son has goue." With a hali-frightened and half-perplexed expression, the father answers, "Gone? gone?---not DEAD?" "Yes; died this morning!" Down he sank upon the chair, his whole frame convulsed, exclaiming, 'Oh, it will nected with the United States Sanitary kill his mother!" and sat for some time weeping. When he rose to go, weak and staggering with sorrow, one of the director's clerks offered his arm and went with him to procure a burial case, and that evening he left for home with the precious remains, scarcely able to articulate his thanks for the kindness shown. Another father came to Louisville to meet a son who had been discharged from a hospital at Nashville, and to have reached Louisville on that day, according to a letter sent by the surgeon. He could not find his son, as expected, and called at the office of the Directory to inquire about him. The hospital report from Nashville had just come in, and when consulted it told the sad tale that the son had died the very day the the father's grief intense. But in addition he was out of money, having expected that his son would receive his pay at discharge and be in funds for the expenses home. The necessary money was procured, all the papers made out requisite to obtain the son's effects from Nashville and the father sent home the same day, feeling that the Sanisoldier and of the soldier's family.

The New Year. The New Year made its advent in no very amlable mood. No sooner was its predeces- rector's office, Louisville, Kentucky, for the sor dead than the ambitions yourg faecal week ending January 2d, 1964: vanited into his vacant place of power, wav-ing his ley cepter over these mild latitudes, and creating such panie and consternation among all classes as has not been witnessed for years. The cold winds shricked with worse than maniac glee, as old and young were pelted with hail and covered with snow, and went ecudding slong the streets to find shelter and fire, and tried to get a little blood into their benumbed fingers, frost-bitten ears, toes and noses. On New Year's day winter Casley I J reigned supreme in this city, the mercury went down to ten degrees below zero, the streets were abandoned and business was sus pended. Never were comfortable quarters at a higher premium, and our citizens generally showed their high appreciation of such blessings by remaining in doors. The New Year has furnished the people topics of conversafancy colors-executed with neatness tion other than President making, Heenan and King's fight, and the war. The intensely cold weather forces itself into every body's mouth and provekes an opinion-snggests to the charitable that there is suffering at their door, and reminds all whose hearts are not tonched with the frest of miserly penurionsness, that now is the time to give to the poor.

the most distressing cases of whooping cough, by Dr. Strickland's mellifluous cough baleam, speak londer than words to the mrits of this incomparable remedy. A grateful patient writes: "I am happy to bear my testimony to the wonderful powers of your balsam in enring my children of the most distressing whooping congh, after every other means had failed." JUST THE THING FOR A NEW YEAR'S PRES-ENT .- The very best thing for a New Year's present is a Grover & Baker sewing machine Thousands of them have already been converted fato as many somewire the present season, and the happy recipients of them will have, daily and hourly, amili cause for thanking and thinking of the donors. A merely ornamental present may captivate the eye for a time; but it is only the really useful that, like true friendship, stands the test of time In buying a sewing machine, however, for a present or otherwise; to get the heat should be the aim of the purchaser, for many machines in the market lead only to Mitter disappointment and "grashing of teeth." Not so with the lncomparable and unapproached Grover & Baker, which, like the good Simaritan that it is, unietly performs its great abundance of good amid the smiles and heartfelt thankfulness of the members of the family circle or the workshop. For years it has stood the severe test of hourly experience, and has lived down hundreds of mushroom sewing machines, and bide, even now, to drive to merited obscurity many others that we wot of, which even the most strennous puffing and the most stupendons falsehoods can hardly keep afloat. Increased facilities enable the mannfacturers to meet the greatly increased demand for the Grover & Baker, but those who design purchasing a sewing machine had better inspect, without delay, the number daily in active operation at the Grover & Baker sewing machine company's establishment, No. 5 Masonic Temple. They will there see a machine noiseless in its character, pleasant to operate, easily learned, not liable to get assailants, who fell back, exclaiming "I am ont of order, capable of making a seam that will never rip, adapted to the entire range of FFFECT OF LIGHT.—A tadpole confined in darkness would never become a frog; and an infant being deprived of Heaven's free light would only grow into a shapeless idiot instead of a beautiful and reasonable being. Hence, in the deep dark gorges and ravines of the Swiss Valois, where the direct sunshine never reaches, the hideous prevaience of idiocy startles the traveler. It is a strange, melancholy idiocy. Many citizens are lucapable of any articulate speech; some are deaf, some are band, some labor under all those privations, and are all miss-shapen in almost every part of the body. I believe there is in all places a marked difference in the healthiness of houses according to their aspect with regard to the sun, and those are decidedly the healthlest, other things being equal, in which all the rooms are, during some part of the day, followed to the difference in the healthlest. Feldamics EFFECT OF LIGHT.-A tadpole confined in the rooms are, during some part of the day, fully exposed to the direct light. Epidemics attack inhabitants on the shady side of the street, and totally exempt those on the other side; and even in epidemics such as ague, the morbid influence is often thus partial in its labors.—IDr Moore

(From the Richmond Whig. The Charleston Courier makes a timely sugrestion to ommending the attention of our Government to the naturalization and cultivation of Callsays for the preservation of the health of our soldiers. This article has a peculiar effect upon the liver, and guards the system against disease by expense and irrejular diet. It 1 said that the great success of the Plantation Bitters of Dr. Drake, which, previous to our unhappy difficulties. was found in most Sonthern homer, was owing to the extract of Calisaya Bark, which it contained as one of ts principal ingredients, "In confirmation of this, we have heard one of our most distinguished physicians remark, that whenever he felt unwell from ordinary dietetic or a'mospheric causes, he invariably relieved himself by Plantation Bitters. Now that these Bitters cannot be obtained, a substitute should be prepared.
We understand that our Government has opened nogo thations with Dr. Drake, through a secret agent, but with what truth we do not know." We are exceedingly obliged to the Richmond Whig for its remembrance of "Audi Lans Syne," but we can as-aure "Onr Government" that the Plantation Hitters are not for sale to any "secret agents," North or South.

There is probably several other things that "Our Govrnment" will yet want. We know that we have the best and most -We know that we have the peat and popular nedleine in the world. We are not afraid to show what it is composed of. Physicians are compelled '

They stimblete the fonctions of the body into vicrous activity, unity the $38-12 tem from the obstructions blich make disease. A cold again the body and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon them selves and the sarrounding organs; producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's fille, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is trie and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in fainly of the idea seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and ilerangements of the natural functions of the body, thry are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Now who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when audiering from the disorder in the company of them when audiering from the disorder in the common completicles, and from other well known public persons.

Dr. Aven, Your Priss are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of nicerous sores npon her hinds and feet that has proved incurable for years. PITTSBURG, PA., May I. 1855. PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855. DR. J. C. ATER—Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst keddacks any body can have by a dost or two of your Pils. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they classes at once, which they classes at once.

Yours with great respect, ED, W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion. Bilious Disorders-Liver Complaints From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their papers as a sperieor, but I find their beneficial effects appent the Liver very market indeed. They have in migratice proved more effectual for the cure of billion complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice hat we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Wishington, D. C., 7th February, 1856. Sin: I have need your Pilis in my general and nesural practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regularing action on the liver is quick and decided, consenues of they are an admirable remedy for derangements of fliat organ. If others of our fraiernity have found them as sicaclous as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the henefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although had enough in itself, is the prepenitor of others that are worse. I believe configeneess to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.
